

Sneak preview: newest addition to the Feadship fleet

This morning, the fourth Feadship of 2017 exited the shed in Aalsmeer. The exterior styling is by Feadship; the interior design of this brand new 69.00-metre yacht comes from the drawing boards of RWD. She will soon be officially launched, and that's when we can also disclose her name.

For those who can't wait, here are the first images of our newest addition to the fleet.
